

MIHO NOBUZANE

A versatile jazz pianist and composer, Miho Nobuzane was born in Osaka, Japan, where she majored in classical piano during college. After she moved to New York, she began to distinguish herself immediately in the Brazilian music scene. Subsequently expanding to various music genres where she performed & toured with such well known great musicians as Bernard "pretty" Purdie, Filo Machado, Martha Reeves & Vandellas, Hendrik Meurkens, Bakithi Kumalo, and many others.

Miho has three albums: "Make You Happy", "Simple Words ~Jazz loves Brazil", and "Anata Ni Deaeta".

Miho performed in Sao Paulo Brazil in a concert sponsored by Japan Consulate in Sao Paulo at Espaço Cachuera with Filo Machado.

Miho is a NORD keyboard endorsee.

Miho is an educator at Afro Latin Jazz Alliance.

"Miho's dynamic approach to the keyboard sets her apart from the others ! Her playing is refreshing and her crossover style is magnificent she plays it all. Miho's new CD has been well worth waiting for."

Bernard "pretty" Purdie

"Miho Nobuzane ... wonderful songwriter and talented pianist ... beautiful and melodic improvisations and a Brazilian swing in the heart ...

*A great pleasure to play with Miho." Filo Machado

Websites

<http://MihoNobuzane.com>

<http://youtube.com/MihoNobuzanePianist>